

Come join us!

St Joseph/Buchanan, Andrew, DeKalb County Continuum of Care is a group of individuals and agencies working to end and reduce homelessness in our area.

The purpose of the Continuum of Care is to promote community dialogue that creates community awareness of homelessness, establishes priorities on target populations to serve, and supports the development of an effective and compassionate response that assists a person's move from homelessness to permanent housing.

Our meetings are held the last Wednesday of the month at 10:00 AM at United Way's office in St Joseph at 118 S. 5th Street, St Joseph, MO.

At meetings, the Continuum of Care engages in:

- Information-sharing
- Policy-making
- Resource allocation
- Training, and
- Other like activities

All are welcome to join!

Please email Bridget@homebaseccc.org with questions or plan to attend the next meeting!
