FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Get your red on and join the fun as we welcome back the Super Bowl Champions Kansas City Chiefs to Training Camp at the Red Rally on Saturday, July 29, at Civic Center Park in downtown St. Joseph.

The Saturday event kicks off at 1pm, with live music, food and drink vendors, inflatables for kids, and fun for everyone. Official Red Rally t-shirts will be available for purchase.

Entertainment includes 90s cover bands Motley Crucial and Poison Overdose, along with popular Kansas City radio personalities. Mitch Holthus, KC Wolf, Rumble, and the Chiefs Cheerleaders will be on stage. Tech N9ne will be back performing a short, family-friendly set that includes his famous "Red Kingdom," anthem for all Chiefs football fans. Country music singer/songwriter Blane Howard returns to the stage to close out the evening.

The Red Rally is a collaboration of Made with Uncommon Character, an organization supported by Mosaic Life Care, the City of St. Joseph, St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce, Missouri Western State University, St. Joseph School District, and the St. Joseph Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, July 29, from 1-7:30pm for another fun-filled Red Rally you won't want to miss. Watch for more details to come.
